SHIPPING REPORTS.

The U. S. S. Ashuelot reports: Fine weather up to Hainan, thence to port dirty weather with strong N.E. monsoon.

The British steamer Cairnmuir reports:
Strong N.E. monsoon last three days, and experienced "terrible" weather from the English Channel to Gibraltar.

The British steamer Oceanic reports:
Hard westerly gales with high seas nearly the whole passage from San Francisco to Yokohama, thence to Hongkong moderate to strong winds.

The British 3-m. schooner Formosa reports: Light variable winds and calms to the Equator, being 80 days from port to there. Crossed the Equator in 185 E. on the 30th Jan., from thence fresh N.E. winds to the Ballantyne Channel, after passing through which fell in with a heavy gale from N.N.W. to N.E. with high cross seas, losing part of bulwarks and splitting several sails. The Rovera and Anna H.
Hall left Newcastle before us for this port, and the German barque Jacobina which left five days after us passed us at Stewart's Island.

The British steamer Douglas reports:
From Foochow to Amoy had fresh monsoon and fine weather. From Amoy to Swatow, moderate N.N.E. wind and drizzling rain. From Swatow to Hong-

Mr Kingsmill: I beg to second the motion, and I will add that the thanks of the Company are due to the Directors and Secretary for the pluck with which they have met the emergencies which they had to face.

Carried unanimously.
The Chairman: I am very glad to find, myself, and so, I have no doubt, my co-Directors and the Secretary, that our labours are appreciated by you, and that what we have endeavoured to do has met with such a kind recognition at your hands. We have done what we have done heartily and with one object in view—to improve the value of the interests of the shareholders in this Company. We have confidence that we shall succeed; it may not be immediately, but certainly we shall succeed in bringing the Company through all its difficulties (applause).
The proceedings then terminated.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

The S. S. Douglas has gone to Aberdeen Dock.

The S. S. Cairnmuir reports terrific weather from the English Channel to Gibraltar.

Notice is given in Saturday's Gazette that all applications made for the direct clearance of British ships to any port whatever of the Sulu Archipelago will be complied with.

The maximum temperature at the Peak during the past week, was 63.0, the minimum 37.0; at the Harbour-Master's Office, the maximum was 69.0, and the minimum 45.0. 1.03 inches rain fell during the week.

The Horticultural Society's Challenge Cups have been awarded, that for Plants and Flowers to Mr Ochoa Chee-bee, comprador to the China Sugar Refinery, exhibiting in Mr Dickie's; and that for Vegetables to Mr H. Dickie; Mr Romano making a good show for second place.

The Cricket Match, Club v. The Coast Team, was commenced to-day under most favourable circumstances as regards the weather. The match was very closely contested on either side, and some very good play was the result. We hold over a fuller report until the conclusion of the game, which will be resumed to-morrow.

The British 3-masted schooner Formosa, Captain W. T. Quaglie, from Newcastle (N.S.W.), reports having experienced a heavy Gale from N.N.W. to N.E. after passing through the Balabang Channel, in which she lost part of her bulwarks, split several sails, and suffered other damage. She further reports that the Rosina and Anna H. Hall left Newcastle for this before her, and that the Jacobina, which left Newcastle 5 days after her, had passed them off Stewart's Island.

The Superintendent of the Eastern Extension, Australasian and China Telegraph Company informs us that the cable between Hongkong and Cape St. James was broken during the night or early on the morning of the 15th instant. It was working well up to nine o'clock on the previous evening, and it is reasonable to suppose that it has been caught by a vessel's anchor or otherwise injured. The fault is only a few miles from Hongkong. The Company's steamer Edinburgh may be expected to leave Singapore at once to effect repairs.

From the Acting Registrar-General's report of the births and deaths in the Colony for the past quarter, it appears that 541 births and 1,036 deaths were registered in that period. During the past year the total births were 1,840, and the deaths 3,468. Of the former 171 occurred among the British and foreign community and 1,669 among the Chinese. The deaths were thus distributed:—British, 50; Portuguese, 51; Indian, 16; Malay, 8; Non-residents, 43; Chinese, 8,261. The annual death-rate per 1,000 for the whole population was 28.18 against 25.87 in 1875; for the British and foreign community, deducting non-residents, 22.92, against 25.94 in 1875; for the Chinese, 28.39 against 25.75 in 1875. Four deaths from small-pox occurred among the British and foreign community during the year, and 165 among the Chinese.

Our Macao correspondent writes: "The Procession of the first Sunday in Lent took place with the usual solemnity. Upwards of one hundred Portuguese from Hongkong took part in it."

"Yesterday evening another conflagration broke out, this time in the village of Colowan, Typa, and before assistance could be rendered, the whole village was destroyed. It is said that the fire originated from the burning of joss-paper. The village of Colowan, formerly a pirate stronghold, was taken possession of in the name of the Queen of Portugal, in 1843, by Governor Amaral, of happy memory, who drove the pirates away, and erected a fort for the protection of the fishing and salt boats, which resorted to the place for the sake of curing their fish. The village increased in importance from year to year, and soon afterwards the Portuguese obtained from it a good revenue for their Exchequer. The Mandarins, then unable to cope with the pirates, were only too glad of the action taken by the Portuguese. This is the second time that the village has been destroyed by fire.

An effort is being made to re-establish S. Jose's College, and as the Bishop is taking up the matter heartily, I have no doubt that in a short time Macao will boast of a house of education second to none in the East. The decree of the King of Portugal, giving full powers to the Bishop to act as he pleases, will remove any obstacle that may be put in the way by the faction who drove the Jesuit fathers away from Macao in 1871."

Tax Office papers announce that from the beginning of next month the Messageries Maritimes steamers will make Colombo a port of call, outward and homeward, as well as Galle.

There seems to be some fatality attending the management of steamers in these days. Scarcely a mail comes but brings news of the loss of large and valuable steamers somewhere or another, and generally not under the most favourable circumstances. Thus the latest Australian papers contain accounts of the loss of two steamers early in December, and both in smooth seas. One was the West Australian Government Mail boat, the Georgie, when on her way from Fremantle to Port Adelaide with a cargo of Jarrah wood, she suddenly sprung a heavy leak and had to be run ashore to save life, and cargo. The other was the Olago, one of the fastest steamers in the intercolonial trade. She went ashore in a fog on the coast of New Zealand and became a total wreck. No lives, happily, were lost in either case.—Strait Times.

ROBERTS, the Champion billiard player of the world, who thinks nothing of a break of 30, passed through Galle the other day and played a game there with one of the residents. The champion gave his opponent 300 points in a game of 500, and he was beaten, scoring only 295 when the game was finished. The Singaporean are naturally jubilant and the local champion is thus described in the Ceylon Observer under the cognomen of Observer:—"Observer is about the same height (as Roberts 5 ft. 11) and a very well-knit man, light, almost sandy hair, genial in countenance and looks as if he was 'well stabled.' An air of cool indifference plays on his face during the game. He is a British-born subject, by religion a Protestant, a 'Bawbee Dealer' by trade, and hails from the land which flows with burgoo and whusky; of the latter he takes but little if any, but he smokes (his only bad habit)."

From the vague references to the subject by the Queensland and Sydney papers we had some doubts in noting the news on Wednesday whether H. E. Sir W. Jervois was the Officer whom the Australians wish the Secretary of State to depute to report upon their defence, but these doubts have been set at rest by the following paragraph from one of the leading papers in Melbourne, The Australasian, received by the French mail:—"An application made on behalf of the Australian Governments will be sent by the mail to the Secretary of State for the Colonies, asking him to bring under the notice of the War Office the request that a Royal Engineer officer of high standing may be sent out to these colonies to devise a proper scheme of defence. The Governments of the adjoining colonies have joined in this application, and the name of Sir William F. D. Jervois, who is at present Governor of the Straits Settlements, has been mentioned as that of an officer admirably qualified for the duty. During the course of a lengthened military career, Sir William Jervois has obtained great experience in the art of fortification. In 1866 he was appointed assistant inspector-general of fortifications, and in 1869 he acted as secretary to the Defence Commission. In 1868 he became deputy director of fortifications at the War Office, and during that and the two following years he was a member of the commission on the application of iron armour to ships and forts. Fortifications and harbour defences at Portsmouth, Plymouth, Pembroke, Portland, the Thames, the Mersey, Cork, and other places, have been designed and carried out by him. His services have frequently been utilised in the manner now sought for. He is the author of numerous reports on the defences of the United Kingdom, and of the British possessions abroad, and was specially employed by the Government of India to report on the defence of the harbours of India, including those of Aden and British Borneo. In February, 1876, he was appointed Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Straits Settlements. If his services cannot be obtained for this purpose, the military authorities will be requested to send out another officer of similar standing. Our Sydney telegram informs us that the Governor of New South Wales on Monday telegraphed to the Secretary of State for the Colonies, asking whether Sir W. Jervois would come out, and if so, what the cost would be."

LATE TELEGRAMS.

By the arrival of the Cairnmuir we are in receipt of Straits exchanges and of the Straits Times Extra (some of which, by the way, ought to have come on by last mail) and from the telegrams therein published we find several features which have not been as yet presented to us by Reuter's agent. One thing is observable, to which the Singapore agent must garden us for objecting, viz., that the dates of the messages supplied to Hongkong and published by us do not always agree with those published in Singapore. The evil of this will be at once apparent to all those interested, as the date of a telegram may frequently be of the greatest importance. We reproduce one or two instances where fuller wording gives the meaning much more clearly than has yet been given by the versions published in Hongkong:—

London, Jan. 30.—The Ministerial Papers censure the vagueness of Mr Gladstone's speech, and ask for a definite statement regarding his Policy.

London, Jan. 31.—The British, German and Italian Consuls have advised Prince Nikita to endeavour to make peace, provided the Porte is willing to make some concessions of territory.

London, Feb. 1.—In a speech made by the Czar at Moscow he stated that Serbia claims Little Zornke and a complete evacuation of her territory by the Porte.

Constantinople, Feb. 3.—The Porte agrees to negotiate with Prince Nikita (Montenegro) on the basis of the "statu quo ante bellum," with cession of territory.

An agreement between the Porte and Serbia seems at present rather doubtful owing to the Turkish Government demanding guarantees.

London, Feb. 4.—A circular has been issued by the Russian Government, stating that at Russia, desiring to maintain the European accord, asks before making a final decision, what course the Powers represented at the conference intend pursuing in view of the Porte's rejection of the demands made.

Constantinople, Feb. 5.—The Porte has issued a circular declaring its intention of vigorously upholding the integrity of the Empire—and it contests the right of interference in its affairs.

(Straits Times Extra.)

Constantinople, Jan. 23.—Lord Salisbury quitted here yesterday. General Ignatieff and Baron Werther will leave together to-day. The other delegates will leave in the course of the week; the Charges d'Affaires will remain behind.

London, Jan. 25.—In a speech by Mr Gladstone yesterday, he said, the question now is, shall Turkey continue to enjoy the advantages of the treaty of 1866?

St Petersburg, Jan. 24.—The Russian Press considers Europe is bound to enforce the demands made by the Powers at the Conference.

Constantinople, Jan. 24.—It is stated that the Porte intends to negotiate direct with Serbia and Montenegro.

London, Jan. 24.—In consequence of the Russian refusal to persist in denying the judgment of the Court of Arbitration he has been imprisoned.

London, Jan. 25.—A great Tory meeting was held yesterday in Liverpool.

Sir Stafford Northcote made a speech, in which he insisted that the interests of England and her desire for peace guided the policy of the Government. He denied the charge that jealousy of Russia had hampered our action in intervening on behalf of the Christians in Turkey, and said the Government had carefully avoided the false policy of coercion. The Porte was unwisely to reject the proposals made at the Conference, but was entitled to choose its own course, and no Power was justified in considering the rejection of the proposals as an insult.

Mr Cross, who also spoke, believed that the present prospects of peace were better than they had been for several months past.

Constantinople, Jan. 26.—Sir Henry Elliot, replying to a farewell address, expressed his firm belief in the future of the Turkish Empire.

The Porte announces its intention to introduce, of its own free will, the reforms demanded by the Powers.

It is stated that Russia intends to propose to the Powers to continue one common action regarding the Eastern Question.

London, Jan. 27.—Mr Gladstone made a speech to day at Taunton, in which he maintained his previous charges against the abominable system of Government in Turkey and insisted that the responsibility of the present state of things rested with England. Turkey had violated and destroyed the treaties of 1866, which were therefore no longer binding. He refuted all insinuations against Russia and concluded by an eloquent appeal to the people of England to do their duty.

Tehran, Jan. 27.—In consequence of England having declared her neutrality, the Shah of Persia has announced that he will follow a pacific policy towards Turkey unless Russia exercises a strong pressure.

Constantinople, Jan. 27.—Midhat Pasha has sent a despatch to Prince Nikita and Prince Nikita, inviting them directly to negotiate for peace.

Constantinople, Jan. 29.—The Porte is vigorously prosecuting the reforms mentioned in the new Constitution.

Replying direct to the invitation of the Porte, Prince Milan has notified his being willing to negotiate for peace.

London, Jan. 29.—The troopship Malabar has passed through the Suez Canal, outward bound.

Police Intelligence.

(Both Magistrates Sitting.)
19th February, 1877.

CHAIR-BIRE.

Charles Wilson, seaman belonging to the ship Tyburnia, was charged with refusing to pay chair-bire, but as the complainant was not in attendance, the case was discharged.

STREET GAMBLING.

Taoi Afu, a hawker, was charged with gambling at the Recreation Ground. The defendant was sent to three days' hard labour.

LARCENY.

Siu Anan, a copper-smith, was charged by a fellow employee with stealing a jacket, but it turned out that the defendant did not mean to steal it. He only borrowed it and had asked a man to inform the complainant that he had taken it. He was consequently discharged.

A NEW WAY OF COLLECTING A DEBT.

Tai Aka, a stone-cutter, was charged with stealing a jacket belonging to his late employer. The defendant said the complainant owed him three mace silver, and he took the quilt in lieu of payment. 14 days' hard labour.

WANTON USE OF THE KNIFE.

Ho Aloon, described as a man of no occupation, was charged with cutting and wounding. The complainant went to the Kooking Theatre yesterday and had a quarrel with the defendant in respect of a seat which the complainant had reserved for himself, but which the defendant had appropriated before the complainant's arrival. The defendant drew a pen-knife and cut his opponent on the eye. The defendant denied the use of the knife. He was, however, identified as having been convicted in 1874 of extortion, being then interpreter to the Inspector of nuisances, and he was detected acting in concert with the Portuguese Usher of the Police Court named De Cruz, in obtaining some money from certain shopkeepers by virtue of their office, and was sent to four months' hard labour. The defendant admitted that he had been so convicted before, but since then he had found employment on board the steamer Somerset. The defendant was sent to one month's hard labour.

SUPREME COURT.

IN ORIGINAL SESSIONS.
(Sitting in His Lordship the Chief Justice Sir JOHN SMALLE.)
February 19, 1877.

LARCENY OF JEWELLERY.

Regina v. Lee Ahim.

The prisoner was indicted for stealing on the 22nd January 1876, one coral neck-lace, six gold studs, one gold coin and other trinkets, the property of Mr John Humby, the proprietor of the Empire Tavern.

The Hon. J. Phillippo, the Attorney General, prosecuted.

The following Jury was empanelled:—Messrs Fitz Rapp, C. F. W. Petersen, J. J. Dorrinck, Wm. Wheeler, J. A. de Jesus, C. P. Chater and C. F. Grossmann.

Mr L. Mendel was excused on condition of his serving to-morrow.

In opening the case for the prosecution, the Attorney General said the evidence in this case would not be long, and it was for the duty to say whether there was sufficient testimony for them to find that the prisoner was guilty of the offence charged against him. The property was not found. The learned Attorney General then narrated the facts, which were briefly these.

The prisoner was a water cooler and had been known to the prosecutor for eight or nine years. Since the prosecutor became proprietor of the Empire Tavern, the prisoner was employed every Saturday to clean up the house. On the 22nd January 1876, just the Saturday before the Chinese New Year, the prisoner came to work as usual, but left earlier. After he had gone, the prosecutor went upstairs and found that he had lost the things described in the information. The prisoner was never seen since that time until the 19th January 1877, when he was found in the street and given into custody. There was, however, no evidence that he actually took away the things, but there was the fact of his having gone away after this robbery and not having been heard of since.

Evidence was then called, and the Jury returned a verdict of not guilty against the prisoner, who was accordingly discharged.

LARCENY OF MONEY &c.

Regina v. Chik Fat Kum.

The prisoner was indicted for robbing on the 20th January 1877, 20 pieces of clothing, 1 silver coin, 2 corn-lan rings, 1 locket and 1 watch guard, the property of Kwan Achee, from the house of Dr G. O. Rogers, on the 26th June 1876.

The facts of the case were these. The prosecutor was cook to Dr Rogers, and on the 27th June last, he went to the Theatre at nearly 6 and did not return till about 11 p.m. Before he went out, he looked up his room, but on his return, he found that it had been broken into during his absence, and a great many things were stolen. Some suspicion was entertained of the prisoner and he was arrested by the police. He was in the same service as a chair-cooler, and before he was discharged, he was arrested by the police, who found in his boxes several things which were identified by the prosecutor. There were several pawn tickets found in his possession for a number of articles of wearing apparel, but they did not refer to articles lost by the prosecutor. There was no actual evidence of his taking the things, but it was for the jury, the Attorney General observed, to say whether, taking into consideration the fact of some of the articles having been found in his possession, that he did steal them or not.

The prisoner was found guilty and was sent to two years' hard labour.

BURGLARY AND LARCENY.

Regina v. Leong A-Lai.

The prisoner was indicted for committing a burglary in house No. 184 Queen's Road West. When he was called upon to make his defence, he then pleaded guilty. He was sent to two years' hard labour.

The Sessions were then adjourned till 10 a.m. to-morrow.

China.

(Herald, Feb. 8.)

The Chinese revenue Cruiser Ling Feng arrived in port on the 4th instant. We understand that she will leave for Wenchow with Customs staff immediately after the native new year holidays.

Mr Consul Davenport arrived per Haining from Shanghai on the 3rd instant, and proceeded to Wenchow on the 8th, in H. M. S. Hornet. In a few days, therefore, we may expect to see the opening of that port to foreign trade officially announced.

Ting Futai left Kelung and Tamsui about the middle of last month for Taiwan. His Excellency travelled overland, attended we hear by the principal Formosan officials. During his stay at Kelung, the Futai minutely inspected the coal mines at that place, and appeared to be much interested in the working of same.

The Committee of the A. D. C. have announced their third performance of the season, to take place on Saturday evening next, the 10th instant, at 8 o'clock. The pieces selected for representation are "Poor Pillicoddy," and "I've Eaten My Friend." We are requested to state that tickets may be obtained from Messrs Hedge & Co., to whom application should be made before hand,—if confusion and unnecessary detention at the door are to be avoided.

We hear that the China Merchants Company intend to run one or more of their steamers regularly between this port and Shanghai. The Fu Yeh is announced to clear at Pagoda Anchorage to-morrow, Friday morning, at daylight. Now it is worth noting that while foreign-owned vessels are compelled to take out clearances at the Custom House in Nantai, only heptanese native company is—on this authority of its agent—privileged to clear its vessels at the Anchorage, at daylight! We feel tempted to enquire, in the words of the illustrious Artemus Ward—"Why are these things thusly?"

It is not every man that can achieve an overland journey from Amoy to Foochow in fifteen days; it has however just been accomplished by two foreign residents of the former port. The Couriers, of course, scramble over it in thirty-eight hours; but then their movements are connected with that arch-annihilator of time, profit, and space—the telegraph. Therefore until such time as Providence, and the China Merchants Company compel us to abandon the luxury of a journey by sea, we shall refrain from advising our readers to adopt the overland route.

SHANGHAI.

(News.)

The water in the Yangtze has risen so that the steamers which have been lately detained in the upper reaches have now managed to get over. On Tuesday there were five arrivals of river boats.

A case of some interest was argued on Friday before C. W. Goodwin, Esq., the Acting Chief Judge of H. B. M.'s Supreme Court. It was one between the China Navigation Company and Mr. Robert Francis; and was stated specially for the opinion of the Court. Mr. Francis was formerly a general merchant at Shanghai and Kiukiang, and at the latter port his business included the agency of the C. N. Co. Residing at Shanghai, he only occasionally visited Kiukiang, where his business was conducted by Mr. W. H. Shaw, who signed the firm of R. Francis and Co. per procurator. It was customary for the general agents of the company, Messrs. Butterfield and Swire, to make advances on their own account to Chinese merchants, upon goods intended for shipment by the company's steamers. In March, 1876, the Kiukiang agency was transferred from R. Francis and Co. to R. Anderson and Co. At the same time Mr. Shaw entered the service of the latter firm, but continued to represent R. Francis and Co., which firm went into liquidation. In the final accounts of the agency from R. Francis and Co. signed by Mr. Shaw, Messrs. Butterfield and Swire were debited with Tls. 6,073 as advanced to shippers, and Tls. 67 as brokerage. Shaw, in the name of R. Francis and Co., drew upon Messrs. Butterfield and Swire a draft for these amounts, and the draft was duly honoured. Subsequently Messrs. Anderson and Co. discovered that the money represented to have been advanced had not been advanced, nor had the brokerage mentioned been paid; and upon investigation the only inference to be drawn was that Shaw, who has now left China, had appropriated the money to his own use.—The question for the Court to determine was the liability of the defendant to refund the deficiency of his sub-agent, and the point was lengthily argued by Mr. Wainwright and Mr. Hannen, who respectively appeared for the plaintiffs and defendant.

Judgment was given in favour of the defendant as regards the larger amount of Tls. 6,073.30, and in favour of the plaintiffs as regards the Tls. 67.18. The Judge held that, although a principal is liable for the tort or negligence of his agent, yet we are to understand the doctrine with its just limitation, that the tort or negligence occurs in the course of the agency. A principal is not liable for the acts of his agent in matters beyond the scope of his agency unless he has expressly authorised them to be done, or has subsequently adopted them. Shaw was certainly acting beyond the scope of his agency in misappropriating money.—The Tls. 67.18 was altogether another matter. It was simply a brokerage which Shaw entered up as paid, but which he had never paid; and in being required to repay it Francis and Co. are simply required to rectify an erroneous entry. Shaw may or may not have contrived to pocket the sum himself, but he at any rate neglected to pay it, and plaintiffs could not be debited with it in their general account with Francis and Co.

HANKOW.

Feb. 9th.

Messrs. Baber and Gill started on the 7th instant for Chungking, and Mr. Dick left on the following day for Ichang—both in Chinese houseboats. The weather is bitterly cold, and I do not envy any of the travellers their journey; the ground is covered with snow, and now it is turning to frost. Mr. W. W. King, accompanied by Mr. Octavius Johnson of H. M. Consular service, left for Ichang on the 6th, in the gunboat Kestrel. Captain Hardie of the U. N. steamer Shanghai accompanies the party. The water is rising hand over fist—a good thing for the Kestrel, as well as for the river steamers.—N. C. L. News.

The Straits.

(Singapore Daily Times.)

His Imperial German Majesty's steam corvette Vivado, Captain Count Von Mante, from Manila, with dates to the 24th ultimo, anchored in the roads this morning (Feb. 2nd) and saluted the British flag, which salute was returned from Fort Canaling.

The U. S. steam frigate Tennessee, Captain Young, bearing the flag of Rear Admiral William Reynolds, Commander-in-Chief of the American Squadron in China and Japan, anchored in the roads yesterday (Feb. 4th) from Bangkok, which port she left on the 31st ultimo.

We are informed, that the Straits steamer Sharpshooter, was sold at Pinang lately for the sum of $16,000, and that she will run between that port and Achom.

The following items of news are translated from Java papers to the 27th ultimo:—"We understand that the Bromo during her last voyage through Banka Straits lay for 24 hours alongside a Swedish vessel, the Kronprins Adolf, from Hongkong to London, which had become fixed on the Karang Radjle. During all that time foul weather and a rough sea prevented communication between the two vessels. It is said that on the anchored there are to be seen the remains of an unknown steamer from Amoy or Hongkong, which had apparently been lately wrecked there."—Batavia Dagblad, 26th ult.

"The American ship Gentoo which was stranded on Neptunus Sandbank; was with the remainder of her cargo sold by auction on the 12th instant for 20,316 guilders. The saved 18,815 cases of petroleum brought 182,800 guilders on the 16th inst."—Batavia Handelsblad, 18th ult.

"Yesterday there took place in front of Janssen's store here, a deed of violence which we hope will not remain unpunished. The account given by the victim, a passenger car driver, when he recovered consciousness in the hospital, runs as follows:—From 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on that day he drove about in his car a European dressed in a black coat, and wearing a straw hat, and a light coloured moustache, and having an eruption on one side of the face. Having arrived in front of Janssen's store with his passenger the driver asked for his fare, because his horse was tired and he had nothing to eat. The European gave him two kwartjes with which he was naturally dissatisfied; when however he asked for more he received no other answer than 'go away,' which he answered with the remark that he would do so forthwith when he had received his money. The other party thereupon turned round, went into the store and immediately returned with a large iron pin with which without any further speaking he gave him a blow on the head. The native pin, and the assailant replaced the iron pin inside the store and endeavoured calmly to go away, but was prevented from doing so by the bystanders, and hence he remained on the spot, where a great crowd of people soon gathered around the pool of blood mixed with hair from the head, while they pointed out to one another the man with the straw hat as the perpetrator. The person thus pointed at stood smoking his cigar keeping his countenance as well as he could, and from time to time asking the bystanders in English whether they would assert that he had done it. He was apparently somewhat intoxicated. Shortly afterwards just when the wounded man had been conveyed to the city hospital, the police Inspector stationed at Godok came, to whom the man in the straw hat stated that he was an Englishman, the captain of a Siamese schooner, and that he was utterly innocent of the crime. None of the bystanders declared having seen him, hence no right to detain the Englishman, who went on board his vessel. Scarcely two hours afterwards the police had taken down the statement of the wounded man, and had succeeded in finding three witnesses of the deed, whereby they obtained an order for arrest. In the meantime the harbour authorities had been instructed not to let the vessel of the suspected man be cleared out. Early this morning the water police went on board, but the Captain was no longer there. The vessel was then removed close to the guard ship in order to have her in view. The suspected Englishman seems however to have made no effort to escape. At least at half-past one, he, in company with two of his countrymen and the water police Inspector, came to the bureau of the Assistant Resident. According to our latest information the native had not yet died of the wound, but there was no great hope of the preservation of his life."—Batavia Dagblad, 23rd ultimo.

"The native passenger car driver who, the day before yesterday, in front of Janssen's store, received a blow on the head with a large iron pin is still alive. The English ship Captain was arrested when he came to the Stadhuys to ask for leave to clear his vessel out. He is in prison. He denies the fact, but, said he, supposing that I had done it, what then? Cannot a person here give a salience to an impudent native? Supposing that he has done it, he will assuredly soon become aware of the contrary."—Ibid, 24th ultimo.

"Captain R. of the schooner Lucie, who struck a passenger car boy and who fled to Buitenzorg after committing the deed, was, we hear, arrested yesterday."—Java Bode, 24th ultimo.

THE CHINESE MAIL.
TERMS OF ADVERTISING IN THE Chinese Mail.

TWO cents a character for the first 100 characters, and one cent a character beyond the first 100, for first insertion, and half price for repetitions during the first week. Subsequent weeks' insertions will be charged only one half the amount of the first week's charge. Advertisements for half a year and longer will be allowed a deduction of 25 per cent. on the total amount, and contracts for more favourable terms can be made.

Efforts have been made to establish Agents for circulating the Chinese Mail in all the ports and in the interior of China, all the ports in Japan, in Saigon, Singapore, Penang, Calcutta, Batavia, Manila, the Philippines, Australia, San Francisco, Peru and other places which Chinese frequent. When the list of Agencies is completed, it will be published. Agents have been already established in most of the above places, and in important ports more than one agent has been appointed at each.

 Municipal Secretary.
 Penang, Municipal Office,
 The 21st September, 1876.

NOTICE.
THE CHINESE MAIL.
 FROM and after the Chinese New Year's day (February 17, 1874) the Chinese Mail will be issued daily instead of tri-weekly as heretofore. No change, however, will be made in the price of subscription, which will remain at $4 per annum.
 The charges for advertisements are now assimilated to those of the China Mail. The unusual success which has attended the Chinese Mail makes it an admirable medium for advertisers.
 The Conductors guarantee an eventual circulation of one thousand copies. It is already the most influential native journal published, and enjoys considerable prestige at the Ports of China and Japan, and at Singapore, Penang, Calcutta, San Francisco and Australia.

The scope of this work includes detailed descriptions of important Sites and Monuments, notes on the CLIMATE and general TOPOGRAPHY, FAUNA, FLORA, GEOLOGY and METEOROLOGY of each Port and its neighbourhood, with HISTORICAL NOTICES and minute details respecting the rise and progress and social characteristics of the several foreign settlements. To these particulars are added summaries and statistics of the TRADE of each open Port, compiled from official returns, together with statements respecting COMMERCE, CURRENCY, and EXCHANGES, LINES OF STEAM COMMUNICATION, DISTANCES, and rates of FREIGHT MONEY, Hints, and recommendations to travellers, giving full particulars of OFFICE and mode of proceeding to the less frequented settlements are also included, combined with notes on DOMESTIC MARKETS and Mode of Living.

In addition to furnishing similar particulars, the Section devoted to Hongkong contains an historical sketch forming a chronological index of the chief events which occupied public attention between 1841 and 1866, including POLITICAL EVENTS, CHANGES in the GOVERNMENT SERVICE, the passing of important ORDINANCES, the ARRIVAL and DEPARTURE of EMIGRANT RESIDENTS, a record of the most notable PIRACIES, ROBBERIES, MURDERS, FRAUDS, FIRES and CRIMINAL TALENTS, ADDRESSES and PRESENTATIONS, &c.; &c.

The appendix contains full tables of the various steam companies' lines. It also includes a CATALOGUE of over 440 works published in the English language upon China and Japan, while a copious INDEX at the end of the work affords a ready means of reference to the reader.
